

Mission Trip

Washington, DC

Washington National Cathedral

Boys Sleeping Room

Church that housed us

Wangari Gardens

Welcome to Wangari Gardens
A park and garden for and by the neighbor
For more info: 202.670.5151
wangari@gardens@gmail.com

2.7 acre garden park in DC. is a mission inspired by a passion for community engagement. It is a community garden, fruit tree orchard, public vegetable garden, herb garden, berry garden, with shared public & reserved spaces.

Food and Friends

Caring for children and adults living with HIV/AIDS, cancer and other life-challenging illnesses by preparing and delivering specialized meals

Rachel's Women Center provides homeless and formerly homeless women with opportunities to develop their independence, sense of self and hope by providing safety, shelter, food, showers and laundry in a nurturing,

homelike environment

- In far NW DC, the nearest produce is 2 bus rides away.
- In 2002, a children's farm market displaced a heroin market that plagued Marvin Gaye Park for over a generation. Initial cleanup uncovered heroin needles in the high tens of thousands

Washington Parks and People transforming communities and lives through parks, community gardens, playgrounds, schoolyards, trails, and watersheds.

L'arche

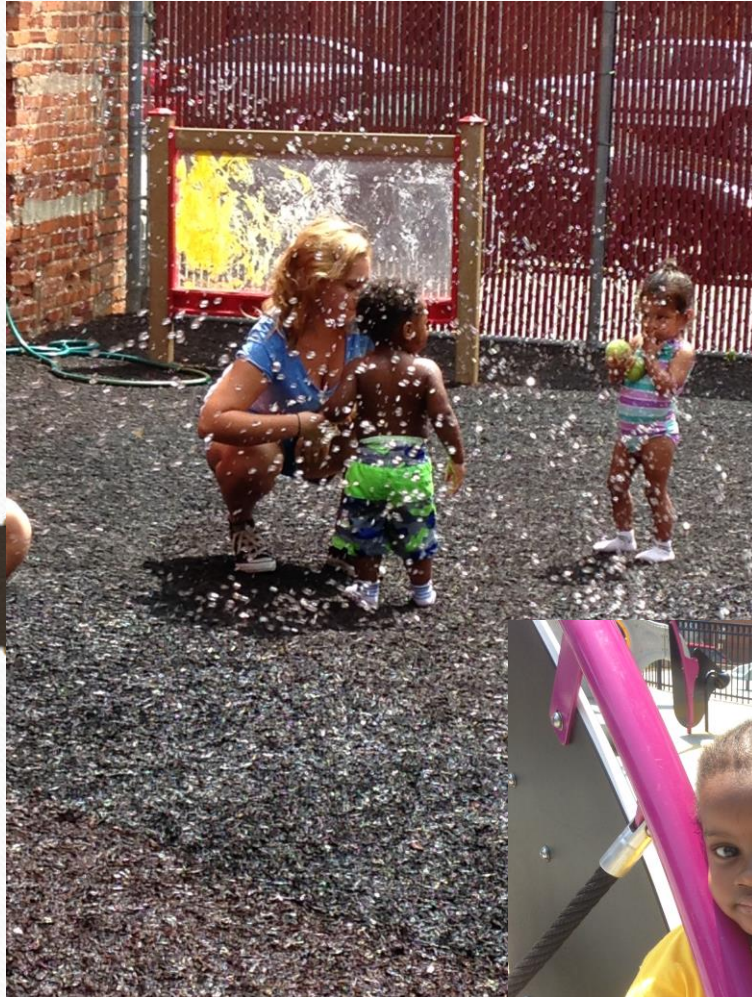

L'Arche is an inter-denominational Christian community that welcomes people of all backgrounds to share life together. Community life is centered around four communal homes and the 16 members who have intellectual disabilities, known as "core people."

After cleaning the home all day, this group was invited back to the home for dinner provided by the residents.

On the menu: Grilled Cheese, salad, & water

Martha's Table

has a mission to “build a better future through healthy food, affordable clothing, and quality education” for vulnerable children and families.

Community Cookout – Playing Soccer in the Rain (now that's not something we get to do often in Phoenix)

THANK YOU FOR YOUR FINANCIAL SUPPORT & PRAYERS.

LOVE, THE YOUTH OF SAINT
MATTHEW'S